

10pm - large house with gardens and small vineyard in the centre of Puligny Montrachet in Burgundy. For a private sale, offers over €1,100,000

Summary

This is a rare opportunity for someone who wants their own elegant, luxury base in Burgundy but without the hassle, greater cost, and risk of acquiring and renovating a property from scratch, or of maintaining a lot of land. All of the detailed renovation work, cost and risk has already been taken on successfully by the current owners just before the vertiginous increase in raw material and building costs. This is reflected in the price but with very reasonable expectations.

This is a beautiful ex vigneron's house in Puligny Montrachet, one of the most prestigious wine villages in Burgundy, with an enormous terrace boasting views across to Le Montrachet and down into the village.

A completely renovated property comprising two attached units with six bedrooms, three en-suite bathrooms, two separate bathrooms, two kitchens and two living areas. The whole renovation was local-architect designed and project managed using a team of artisan builders.

Good sized, secluded garden to the front big enough for a swimming pool if desired.

Half a hectare of your own vineyard of Pinot Noir vines to the rear, rented to a highly regarded local vigneron with rent paid in excellent wines or cash.

Enormous garage and cellar area, big enough to store a large quantity of wine, create a gym or office space or indeed more living space.

The living areas are renovated to a luxury standard with high quality oak flooring, Porcelanosa tiling, Hansgrohe fittings, modern air conditioning and central heating, water softener, Miele and Bosch appliances, high speed broadband etc etc.

Absolutely ready to move in once purchased. you will not have to do any work on this property unless you really want to. This property comes with all furniture etc, including some antiques and spares of many things.

Relationship with the renovating architect who could coordinate any additional work desired by the new owners.

Currently rented as a hobby, but could be developed on a more commercial basis or maintained as a private dwelling.
